

10th French Physicists' Tournament

Problem 5 : Pringles stack ring

It is possible to build structures by stacking Pringles on top of one another in various configurations. What are the physical parameters that allow some geometric patterns to be constructed ? What is the largest stack ring that can be built ? What maximal weight can it support ?

more problems at fpt.science

how did you make this ?

Pringles.

experiment

report

oppose

